Actor Visiting TH&VS

The Arts Department at Timmins High is welcoming a special guest all this week (Nov. 2-5th). Toronto actor Jim Dalling has been invited to the school to work with drama and art classes.

Jim Dalling describes himself as a “freelance joy monger – a comedian of actions and words”. He is also a proud father, writer, mask performer, mask maker, DJ, and sought-after physical theatre teacher. Dalling works extensively in Ontario schools as an educator through the Ontario Arts Council’s “Artists in Education” program. Dalling’s performances for family audiences have been seen in hundreds of schools by thousands of students across Canada. For more information, log-on to www.jimdalling.com.

On Friday November 6th, Dalling will be putting on a show for all students who were involved in his workshop (12:05-1:00pm in the theatre). Media are invited to the show, and/or to cover any of the workshops this week (1:45-3:00 Wed. or Fri., or 9:00-10:00am Friday).
